Nov'24 NCPI to drop to 5.4%YoY/1%MoM

- We expect headline inflation for the month of Nov'24 to drop to 5.4%YoY/1%MoM—lowest since Jan'21; amid relatively stable food and utility prices and only a marginal uptick in POL prices. According, FY25 TD NCPI is likely to touchdown at ~8.1%YoY.
- Nevertheless, some sticky core segments continue to drive the general price level upwards albeit at a decelerating momentum like Clothing (9% weight), Health (3% weight), Recreation (2% weight); Education (4% weight); and Restaurants & Hotels (7% weight), respectively. Transport segment to post a gain of 1.5% MoM due to a 1% and 2%MoM increase in MS & HSD prices.
- Going forward, we expect NCPI to remain around the mid-single digits range up to Apr'25, due to falling core inflation and stable fuel and utility prices, supported by a robust external outlook.

200bps cut likely in the Dec'24 MPC meeting

- State Bank of Pakistan's monetary policy committee (MPC) is scheduled to meet on December 16, 2024, wherein we expect the MPC to cut the benchmark policy rate by 200bps to 13.00%.
- Despite the significantly positive real-interest rates on a forward-looking basis, we believe that the SBP will continue to follow a cautious approach to easing, remaining cognizant of the perceived risks to the outlook for inflation as well as the risks to the Rupee in case of aggressive rate cuts. Moreover, any future inflation outlook must also account for the likely increase in fuel and utility prices as the same may be due but not yet put into effect.

TSL Research Dissemination Policy

Taurus Securities Ltd. endeavors to make all reasonable efforts to disseminate research to all eligible clients in a timely manner through either physical or electronic distribution such as mail, fax and/or email. Nevertheless, not all clients may receive the material at the same time.

Taurus Stock Rating System

TSL employs a 3-tier rating mechanism i.e 'BUY', 'HOLD' and 'SELL', which is based upon the level of expected return for a specific stock. When total return (capital gain + dividends) exceeds 16%, a 'BUY' rating is assigned. A 'SELL' rating is issued whenever total return is less than -6% and for return in between the 2 ranges, 'HOLD' rating is meted out. Different securities firms use a variety of rating terms/systems to describe their recommendations. Similar rating terms used by other securities companies may not be equivalent to TSL rating system.

Time horizon is usually the annual financial reporting period of the company (unless otherwise mentioned in the report). Ratings are updated daily and can therefore change daily. They can change because of a move in the stock's price, a change in the analyst's estimate of the stock's fair value, a change in the analyst's assessment of a company's business risk, or a combination of any of these factors. In addition, research reports contain information carrying the analyst's views and investors should carefully read the entire research report and not infer its contents from the rating ascribed by the analyst. In any case, ratings or research should not be used or relied upon as investment advice. An investor's decision to buy, sell or hold a stock should depend on individual circumstances (such as the investors existing holdings or investment objectives) and other considerations.

Target price risk disclosures

Any inability to compete successfully in the markets may harm the business. This could be a result of many factors which may include (but not limited to) geographic mix and introduction of improved products or service offerings by competitors. The results of operations may be materially affected by global economic conditions generally, including conditions in financial markets. The company is exposed to market risks, such as changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates and input prices. From time to time, the company may enter into transactions, including transactions in derivative instruments, to manage/offset certain of these exposures.

Valuation Methodology

To arrive at our period end target prices, TSL uses different valuation methodologies including

- · Discounted cash flow (DCF, DDM)
- Justified price to book (JPB)
- Relative Valuation (P/E, P/B, P/S etc.)
- Equity & Asset return based methodologies (EVA, Residual Income etc.)
